

Do you wish to become a company member?

CND is a company limited by guarantee and supporters who wish to participate in the democratic processes of CND need to be company members.

For example, if you wish to attend Conference or Council, or to put resolutions to Conference, you will need to be a member of the company. It's very easy; all you need to do is fill in the form overleaf.

Once you have completed the form you will remain a company member for as long as you remain a paid up member of CND. There is no cost or obligation and you can join at any time. However, once you've become a company member, if CND were to be wound up then you may be asked to contribute a maximum of £1 towards the legal costs.

But you don't need to be a company member in order to support CND, you are helping us just by being a member and giving us your support, time and donations. And if you ever decide to come to Conference at a later date, don't worry, because we'll invite you to become a company member again at that time.

Thank you for your support.
